Damsels in Distress

USA - Whit Stillman - 1 hr 39 min

Whit Stillman returns, after a long absence, with this delightful, whimsical film about four "college coeds." It's Jane Austen goes to college with amusingly-mannered observations on life and love. These young women are very sensible and proper - they have to be, because the guys are completely stupid and socially inept. Arch, but completely earnest at the same time, DAMSELS is an utter delight. Starring Greta Gerwig.

Salmon Fishing in the Yemen

UK - Lasse Hallström - 1 hr 52 min

Ewan McGregor stars as a British bureaucrat forced to help a wealthy sheik construct a salmon run in the Middle East. Emily Blunt is the financial advisor thrown together with him as the improbable plan begins to work. The film is funny, charming, and romantic. Kristin Scott Thomas is glorious as the foul-mouthed press secretary of the Prime Minister.

Footnote

Israel - Joseph Cedar - 1 hr 43 min w/subtitles

A highlight of recent Israeli cinema, FOOTNOTE is a compelling drama about battling father and son scholars in Jerusalem. The father is an underappreciated purist, while his son is a rising star. Then one day the father appears to have won the country's most prestigious award and the tables are turned. Or has a horrible mistake been made? A wry satire about family and academics.

The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel

UK - John Madden - 1 hr 58 min

This charming film follows a group of British retirees who decide to "outsource" their retirement to India. Enticed by advertisements for a life of leisure, they arrive to find their accommodations decidedly less luxurious than imagined. Despite initial setbacks, however, they are transformed by their new experiences. Starring Judi Dench, Bill Nighy, Tom Wilkinson, Maggie Smith, and Dev Patel.

A Separation

Iran - Asghar Farhadi - 2 hr 3 min w/subtitles

Set in contemporary Iran, A SEPARATION is an internationally recognized, award-winning drama of great emotional power. It's a carefully observed story about a middle-class Tehran couple's legal and familial strife. Should the family leave for the West? Or stay for an ailing parent? Or divorce? It's culturally specific, but universal in its themes. And deeply moving.

MAIN ATTRACTIONS

Monsieur Lazhar

Canada - Philippe Falardeau
1 hr 34 min - w/subtitles

MONSIEUR LAZHAR is a transcendent film about an Algerian teacher who comes to a Montreal middle school class after the suicide of their well-liked teacher. Canada's Oscar entry is a sensitively acted, precisely directed drama about children and adults who are forced to deal with loss. Starring Mohamed Fellag, whose deeply felt performance is matched by the natural charm of the child actors.

Pina

Germany - Wim Wenders - 1 hr 46 min
w/subtitles

PINA is a feature-length dance film featuring the dance of the great German choreographer, Pina Bausch. Director Wim Wenders takes the audience on a stunning visual journey from the stage out into the world. Whether you're familiar with Pina Bausch's work or not, this meditation on movement and space, transportation and transcendence, is not to be missed. Be aware, though, that we will be showing this movie in 2D, not 3D.

Moonrise Kingdom

USA - Wes Anderson

Moonrise Kingdom is the much-anticipated new feature from director Wes Anderson. Set in New England in the 1960s, the film follows a young boy and girl who run away from home. Their absence turns things upside down in a wryly comedic, Wes Anderson-type way. Bill Murray and Frances McDormand play the young girl's parents; Bruce Willis is the town sheriff; and Edward Norton plays a camp leader. Tilda Swinton and Jason Schwartzman are also featured.

Being Flynn

USA - Paul Weitz - 1 hr 26 min

This independent drama is about a struggling writer, who works at a Boston homeless shelter. One night his troubled father, who is a con man and self-proclaimed poet, shows up. Sensing trouble in his own life, the son wrestles with the question of whether to reach out again to his dad. Featuring Paul Dano, Robert De Niro, and Julianne Moore.

In Darkness

Poland - Agnieszka Holland - 2 hr 25 min
w/ subtitles

Set during WWII, IN DARKNESS is a very serious film about a handful of Jews who hid in the sewers of Lvov, Poland to escape the concentration camps. The story is absorbing and the suspense, derived from a true story, is excruciating and inspiring in equal measure. It's also an extraordinary journey of survival as these men, women and children try to outwit death during 14 months of ever-increasing danger.

Limited Engagements

We try to play each of our Main Attractions films for a full multi-week run. Sometimes, however, we are unable to play a film in a timely or complete way, and it becomes a question of either squeezing it in or not playing it at all. We then often schedule that film for a couple of mid-week screenings, called Limited Engagements. Make sure that you sign up for our weekly email, so that you don't miss these short, last-chance screenings.
